Indian Home Loans Market

Favourable Macros for Mid-Income Affordable Housing

Strong structural drivers and government focus: “Housing for All by 2022”

- Mid-income mass housing covered under Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (PMAY) scheme
- Homebuyers can withdraw from accumulated Employees’ Provident Fund (EPF) corpus for both down payment as well as to pay their home loan EMIs
- Budget 2017 has meaningfully enhanced the scope of ‘Affordable Housing’ and ‘PMAY’ for buyers, lenders and developers to include mass-market mid-income affordable housing
- Land owned by private developers to be roped in under the PMAY scheme to boost development of affordable homes under the proposed public-private partnership (PPP) model¹

With PMAY for mid-income affordable housing, effective interest rate at 0.30% for home loan of ₹ 2.4 Mn

- Effective home loan rates in the mid-income affordable housing segment is at near-zero levels. With rental yields at 3.2%, home ownership is very affordable and significantly cheaper than renting a house

According to NHB data, disbursements of sub ₹ 2.5 Mn home loans grew by 33% in FY17 driving growth in overall home loan disbursements by 23%. Disbursements of sub ₹ 2.5 Mn home loans now form 76% of all home loan disbursements

RBI, SEBI and IRDA – Regulatory agencies working in coordination towards “Housing for All by 2022”

- SEBI has increased cap on additional exposure to AA (and above) rated HFCs from 25% to 40% in February 2017, the only sector enjoying limit above 25% sectoral cap applicable for all other sectors
- Affordable housing has been granted infrastructure status in the 2017 budget - ECBs up to $ 750 Mn per annum can be raised under automatic route
- RBI has reduced risk weights on bank lending to AAA rated HFCs to 20% from 100%, enabling banks to lower cost of funding to HFCs
- IRDA has exempted investments in AAA rated HFCs from sectoral caps thereby enabling insurance companies to freely invest in HFC debt instruments

Unlocking of EPF Corpus for Purchasing a House and Servicing Home Loan EMIs

- Employee Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) members can withdraw up to 90% of their accumulated corpus for purchase or construction of a house
- The balance, unutilised EPF corpus can be further withdrawn to service home loan EMIs
- For the home buyer this means:
 - The 20% upfront amount for purchase of house can be paid from withdrawal of accumulated EPF corpus
 - Home loan amount eligibility increases as the EPF amount is now available for paying loan EMIs
- The total EPF corpus is ₹ 8.5 lakh Cr. (₹ 8.5 trillion) with a subscriber base of 50 million
- Of the above, over 7.5 million* subscribers are from the 'exempt' category where annual salaries are in excess of ₹ 250,000, and have been members for over 3 years, representing prime, mass-market house buyers eligible under this scheme

* EPFO Annual Report 2014-15

EPF: Employees' Provident Fund

Accumulated Corpus = employer's contribution + employee's contribution + accumulated interest

PMAY and Tax Incentives for Mid-Income Affordable Housing

Tremendous boost from expansion of coverage to mid-income affordable housing under Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (PMAY)

- People earning up to ₹ 150,000 per month now covered under the scheme for purchase of a house of carpet area up to 1,185 Sq. Ft.
- There is no cap on the value of the house being purchased
- Up to a home loan amount of ₹ 2,285,000 (property value of ₹ 3,265,000) the effective interest rate on the loan will be less than 0% - over the loan tenure, the borrower repays less than the loan amount
- Up to a home loan of ₹ 3,600,000 (property value of ₹ 5,140,000) the effective interest rate on the loan will be less than the rental yield, which averages 3.2% for the top-12 Indian cities
- Effective home loan rate for ₹ 2.4 Mn home loan, IBHFL's average ticket size, is 0.30%
- PMAY subsidies are promptly processed through the NHB and payments are received in 30 days
- PMAY projects to be out of purview of GST

Budget 2016-17	100% tax exemption on profits from construction of affordable housing has been increased by a further period of 2 years. This will attract organized developers and increase supply
Fiscal Incentives	PMAY projects to be out of purview of GST. Service tax exemption on construction of affordable housing projects will lead to reduction in prices, increasing affordability

- Growth is aided by increased affordable housing supply and improved affordability supported by lower interest rates and PMAY subsidy
- HFCs unimpacted by demonetization outpaced banks to capture incremental home loans' market share
- Large HFCs have lower operating cost ratios and can better protect their profits than smaller HFCs
